EDMUND D. HULBERT
ON PRESIDENT WILSON

Edmund D. Hulbert, president of the Merchants' Loan & Trust Company, in a recent statement on the political situation paid a great tribute to President Wilson. In the course of the statement Mr. Hulbert said:

"Future generations will doubtless look back on the virulent hatred now being displayed toward President Wilson with the same amazement we now feel when we read of the venomous hatred that was directed against Washington and Lincoln.

"The same high courage and ability was shown in the treasury department.
 The manner in which the bond issues were handled and all financial war problems met was superb.

"It is not unfair to compare this with the same department during the Spanish war, when the machinery broke down in handling a bond issue of $200,000,000.

"Secretary McAdoo was, in my opinion, in most respects the greatest secretary of the treasury we ever had.
 It was a tremendous feat to get such an enormous bond issue out at such low rates.

"Apparently the only specific promise Senator Harding has felt at liberty to make on his own responsibility is that, if elected, he will endeavor to have these bonds refunded at a higher rate of interest so that they will sell at par.

"The opposition to the federal reserve act was of the same character as the opposition to the league of nations. Every great step in human progress has met with the same kind of opposition.

"When the constitution of the United States was under consideration, it was violently opposed in many quarters on the ground that, if adopted, the boys of North Carolina might be sent to help quell disorders in Maine.

"When the Monroe Doctrine was under consideration, the same kind of people had visions of our young men dying on the battle fields of South America to maintain this doctrine.

"The machinery of the federal reserve act has been used to preserve financial peace, because that is what it is for. In the same way, the machinery of the league of nations will be used to preserve world peace, because that is what it is for."

FIDELITY & DEPOSIT CO. ON CONDITION OF THE COUNTRY

John McGillen, general agent in Chicago for the great Fidelity & Deposit Company of Maryland, has favored us with a copy of the comprehensive and interesting report made by Hon.
 Franklin K. Lane, former secretary of the interior, for the Fidelity and Deposit Company on the condition of the country politically and financially, as shown in replies received by him from all sections.

"Politically, the replies indicate that it is too early to tell what the outcome of the November election will be.
 Three months ago, there was a stronger Republican sentiment than there appears to be now. The trend has been, and is, Republican. What it will be in November these gentlemen do not prophesy.

"The large outstanding fact developed by the Fidelity & Deposit seems to be that the greatest issue in the public mind is being overlooked by the campaigners—the high cost of living. I think this conclusion might well be justified, but the blame should not be cast upon the producer, and certainly the farmer has not received his share of the wealth which he creates.

"The cost of living and foreign relations seem to be the main issues. Taxation and industrial relations also occupy a place in the general political thought. Least interest appears to be shown in the railroad policy of the present administration, radical movements and prohibition.

MUCH FOR YOUR

 "It is clear that the country is on a sound economic basis, and there is generally a spirit of confidence in the future, regardless of the outcome of the election.

"The business outlook appears to be good in every section. Wholesalers and retailers view the fall and winter optimistically. The retailer is finding that the consumer is looking forward without fear to the winter, and his purchases from the wholesaler are founded upon this optimism. From the simple toiler up through the tradesman to the industry and the financier there runs the connected feeling of confidence."

RECORDERS OF WRONGS

Many people keep records of the wrong numbers they receive when trying to telephone somebody.

Another case of alleged overcharging against the Chicago Telephone Company was made public by Special Assistant Corporation Counsel Chester E. Cleveland. He said the complaint was added proof to his charges subscribers are being mulcted out of millions annually through the present system of operating the so-called measured service.

F. J. Shead, president of the Shead Lumber Association, submitted a copy of a letter addressed to the State Public Utilities Commission demanding action on previous complaints. He said from May 1 to August 1 his firm was charged a monthly bill ranging from 323 to 386 calls.

"We had a nickel phone installed August 2 and on September 22, for the first time, 231 nickels were taken out," he wrote. "This was for a period of fifty-one days. You will note that for twenty-five days each month we were being charged from 300 to 400 calls, but when they had to deal with us on the square they only found 231 calls, and this in the face of the fact we had to do an unusual amount of phoning owing to the disturbed conditions of the lumber market during the last sixty days."

Cleveland argued several times for the installation of private meters, but the commission has not yet taken action.

Some of "Doc" Reid's friends say that his overwhelming defeat for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State was due to the prevailing complaint of poor telephone service.
 The Doc is Commissioner of Public Service and the idea is that the people want better public service and fewer "wrong numbers."

Herbert S. Mills, whose beautiful residence in Oak Park is surrounded by many broad acres of trees, shrub-berry and flowers, is not only public ing to contribute to the happiness of his fellow citizens by building an aquarium, which will be second to none in the country.

 in the way of boosting the town at home. Patronize home industries.
 That is "boost" enough.

Don't put your money on out-of-town boosting schemes. Just spend it in Chicago with Chicago people.

 lar attorney, with offices in the Con-

 Chicago's City Treasurers, would make a good State Treasurer.

Harry R. Gibbons is being talked of for mayor by some of the biggest men in the business community. He is the choice of all factions in the Democratic party.

 electing Colonel James Hamilton Lewis governor of Illinois.
 Colonel Lewis has the solid backing of every faction in the Democratic party united behind him.

He is a wonderful campaigner and his friends predict that he will poll 200,000 Republican votes.
